HELP WANTED

Your newsletter is presently operating without a full-time Editor! The vacant position is being held on an interim basis by a volunteer, J. Douglas Leith. Doug does not live in Rockland County, and does not have the time to take over the position permanently. He has volunteered as the editor for a short time to keep the Newsletter going. A FULL-TIME EDITOR is needed! If you have an interest in the position of Newsletter Editor, or if you know of someone who might, now is the time to speak up. Your society is in need! Contact GSRC President Maryann Smith, PO Box 444, New City, NY 10956

HAVERSTRAW BRICK MUSEUM

The program presented at the September 2002 meeting of the Genealogical Society at the New City Library dealt with the Haverstraw Brick Museum and the families involved.

Mrs. Patricia Gordon, director of the Brick Museum, as well as the guiding inspiration was our guest speaker for the evening. Pat outlined the history of the brick industry and the many families associated with its development.

A collection of 80 slides was shown of the Haverstraw area and the early brick yards located there. Pat spoke of an educational program being developed to introduce the younger school children to the art of producing bricks as they did at the turn of the century.

Pat Gordon suggested that she would welcome post cards, photographs and family history from those families around the country who experienced growing up in the Haverstraw area.

The Haverstraw Brick Museum is a growing institution, with new ideas being implemented and many volunteers being utilized to broaden the scope of the museum.

The Brick Museum is open on Sundays and Wednesdays from 1 to 4 p.m., and at other times by appointment.

The Museum phone is (845) 947-3505

Pat Gordon's home phone is (845) 359-1663

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR

Many thanks to all our members for their many continued contributions. The GSRC Newsletter is greatly enriched by your willingness to share. Without you we cannot continue to put together the kind of newsletter you want and enjoy. All members are invited to submit material for publication. Original work is desired and encouraged. When sending information from another source, please give proper credit. The Genealogical Society of Rockland County, and its Editor, will assume no responsibility for typographical or factual errors, or for the opinions expressed or implied by its contributors. All submitted material will be published at the discretion of the Editor, without verification, and as space permits. Submissions may be edited for length, content and accuracy. Readers comments are welcomed. The Newsletter is published quarterly, at the beginning of September, December, March and June. The deadline for all submitted material is the first of the month preceding the month of publication. Send material, articles and comments to:

J. Douglas Leith, GSRC Newsletter Editor
162 Islington Road
Auburndale, MA 02466-1012
E-mail: jdleith@attbi.com

Dues and Membership Annual Society dues are now $15.00 for both individuals and organizations. The Society dues year is September 1st to August 31st.

Meetings and Events

Regular meetings are held the 4th Tuesday of every month except July, August, and December, in the all purpose meeting room in the New City Public Library, 220 N. Main St., New City, Rockland Co., NY. (845) 634-4997

All meetings will start at 7 p.m. unless otherwise noted
For information regarding meeting cancellations due to bad weather, call Marie Koestler, (845) 623-4046 or Sally Dewey, (845) 359-5490

PROGRAMS

December, 2002 No Meeting. Happy Holidays !!!

January 28, 2003 ... Ira Burke will lead a discussion with and for newer members and genealogy beginners on the Easy, the Hard, and the Ugly of Starting Genealogy. This should be a fun evening of learning and exchange of ideas and success stories from some new points of view.

February 25, 2003 ... (not yet confirmed) A program on the Tallman family of Rockland County by a family member. More details to follow.

March 2003- (Exact date to be decided- probably Sat. 22nd) a carpool trip to Passaic County genealogy Society's headquarters in Lambert's Castle, Paterson, NJ, for a tour of their research library.

April 2003- Either Saturday 19th or 26th- a cosponsored trip with the New City Library to NYC- details to follow

May 2003- Sat. May 31st. Britta Arendt will present a program on Civil War Nurses; Who were they? How did they receive a commission? Why did their families disown them? And how to research them.

June 14th, 2003- THE 5TH ANNUAL ROCKLAND GATHERING- Much is being planned to make this a gala occasion! The Society for Creative Anachronisms will be with us for the day. They will set up a medieval fair on the lawn and show us what life was like on Market Day in the middle ages. Arts, crafts, games, and armament will be demonstrated. These folks are not re-enactors (like civil war re-enactors) who must follow the historical details of how a particular event occurred. Rather they are re-creators who have immersed themselves in a fascinating period of history and can give valuable insights into how our ancestors lived, loved, fought, and died. Susannah Bensen will be back with her Creative Memories scrap booking Table and she will lead a day of scrapping in the library for anyone who cares to come and work on their projects; Beth Potter, from Bergen County, will speak on "How to do a House History" which is also her business; Remembering Our Ancestors Author Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak (yes, that's her real name) will share amusing, amazing and touching stories of the many creative ways people have paid tribute to those who came before us. And for those of us who have reached an impasse in our research, she'll share another collection of tales that show that our ancestors want to be found as much as we want to find them. As ever, the pot luck lunch should be a special treat as will the new cousins and contacts we discover. Come for an hour, come for the day and let a little family history rub off on you.

June 24th- This will be our last meeting before the summer break. Program still to be decided.

If you know someone who might do a program, or if you would like to do a program yourself, please contact Maryann Smith at (845) 358-2145.

PETER REED and MARIA KROM

by D. Reid Ross

Peter Reed (Reid) (Ridt)

Son of John Ross and Margaret Hyman

Born October 8, 1735, Islay, Scotland

Married about 1763

Maria Krom (Crom)

Daughter of Dirck and Cataryn Crom

Born: December 26, 1735

Died: After 1811

Maria Krom, daughter of Dirck and Catryn Crom, and great granddaughter of Floris Willemse Krom, married Peter Reed (Reid) (Read) (Ridt) about 1763. Peter's place of residence before his marriage was probably at Scotland Hill, in the Precinct of Haverstraw [now in the Village of Chestnut Ridge]. There is no record of their marriage since there is a break in the Tappan Church records from 1754 to 1784 due to a fire. The Tappan [Dutch] Church was the Krom family church. Their four daughters and three sons were all baptized in this church. They were: Maria (Mary) b. 1765; Catherine, b. 1767; Margaret, b. 1767; John, b. 1772; Jane, b. 1774; Peter, b. 1777; and Daniel Reed [my ancestor], born 5 August, 1779. Daniel Reed married Betthaiah (Metthia) Johnson in 1804, in Cambridge, Washington Co., NY.

Peter Reed was a weaver as early as 1767, when he bought a loom, a cow, and all household goods from Arthur Johnson, a weaver living at Haverstraw. Peter's wife Maria Kom was born and raised in Haverstraw. Peter served as constable and collector in 1764 in Haverstraw, as well as a road master and highway master in 1772, 1781, 1787, 1791 and 1792.

In 1776 he enlisted in the Kakiat Company of the 2nd Regiment of Orange County Militia which saw action as shore guards and scouts along the west bank of the Hudson River. Later he served in a detachment of levies under Lt. Col. Gilbert Cooper.

By 1782 he had moved from Scotland Hill, and was living in New Hempstead when he mortgaged seventeen and one half acres, containing three parcels adjacent to and owned by the New Hempstead Presbyterian (English) Church, also known as the English Meeting House. Its mother church was founded in 1644 in Hempstead, Long Island, and is probably the oldest continuing Presbyterian Church in the United States. Like all early Presbyterian churches in the U.S., it had its origins in the emigration of Scots and Ulster Scots of Northern Ireland.

New Hempstead (earlier known as Kakiat, since 1829 as Ramapo) was settled in 1713 by a company of English colonists, largely from Hempstead, Long Island. The church was founded in 1754 in the Kakiat Patent. It was located on the Old Kings Road about midway between Scotland Hill and the Kings Ferry on the Hudson River. A north-south road intersected the Old Kings Road, adjacent to the church and a log schoolhouse.

When the British occupied Long Island in 1776, a number of patriots, mostly Presbyterian, abandoned their homes. Some who were living in the original Hempstead town on Long Island moved to New Hempstead to escape British rule.

Among the first deacons and elders of the church were Jonah and Timothy Halstead, and Samuel Coe. Coe donated the land on which the church was built. The Clarkstown Town Clerk records indicate that in 1791 Peter Reed was road master "from John Coe's property (his neighbor and grand nephew of Samuel Coe) to the head of the mountain," toward Scotland Hill. In 1794 Peter Reeds property was assessed at 63 pounds for tax purposes.

Elections were held at town meetings at his house to vote on establishing a poor house in 1796 in Clarkstown; in 1797 to authorize the raising of 300 pounds to finance it; and in 1798 to raise an additional 300 pounds for poor relief.

Peter Reed was an "organizing member" of the New Hempstead Church in 1785 and was listed seventh on its membership roll of only twenty-three that year. He rented its parsonage from 1791 to 1797 when there was no resident pastor and while the church was being rebuilt. John D. Coe served as clerk and treasurer of the church for fifty years beginning in 1785.

Peter Reed and John D. Coe (his friend, fellow church member, neighbor and executor of his estate) were two of the three trustees of the Clarkstown School in 1796-1797 near their church. State legislation passed in 1795 provided partial funding of schools providing local communities raised one-half of the state appropriation. It also provided for local election of school commissioners.

John Coe also had served as an ensign in Peter Reed's militia regiment. He also kept a tavern and store on the northwest corner of the road opposite the church, on Lot 4 of the 100 acre lots in the Kakiat Patent. During the revolution the tavern was a convenient way station for officers and couriers passing through. On at least two occasions troops camped in the immediate vicinity. Major John Andre had dinner there on his way to Tappan to be tried for treason. During the revolution the county supervisors sometimes convened their meetings in the tavern or the church.

John D. Coe was a member of the Provincial Congress in 1775, and a judge of the county court at that time. In 1775 and 1778-1780 he was a member of the New York State Assembly, and was a State senator from 1795-1798. John D. Coe also served as Chaplain in the 2nd Regiment, Orange County Militia, Captain Johnson's Company. His wife was Mary Halstead. Peter Reed served in a different company of the same regiment.

The Reed children attended the Clarkstown School. The log schoolhouse was built about 1774 near the church, and the church was undoubtedly responsible for running the school. The teacher was George Douglas, presumably an Englishman. After 1795 the school received state aid as a common school.

Peter Reed appears as head of household in the 1790, 1800 and 1810 census of Rockland County. His immediate neighbors in 1800 were Benjamin Halstead and Jonas Halstead. In 1784, Thomas Halstead posted a bond on the mortgage against property that Peter Reed purchased in 1782.

On November 9, 1807, Peter sold sixty acres of land he owned in Washington County, NY, to his son Daniel (who lived there) for $1.00. Daniel died in the war of 1812. The deed was witnessed by John D. Coe. Peter had inherited this land from his father John, who had been awarded Lot 70 of the Argyle Patent that was granted to Lachlan Campbell by the NY Colonial government.

Peter's will, probated January 10, 1811, in New Hempstead, left his estate to his wife Mary (Maria); his two daughters, Mary and Margaret; and the minor children of his deceased son John (who had died by July 20, 1810). By 1811, John's widow (Thankful) had married Abraham Jones and was recorded as a member of the New Hempstead Church.

No record has been found as to when Maria Reed died, or where she is buried, but she obviously survived him, since she was named in his will. There are no burial records for whether Peter Reed or his wife Mary. It is possible, however, that they are buried in an unmarked grave in the Coe family cemetery about 1/2 mile north of their church.

Peter's daughter Margaret, who had married David Halstead, was undoubtedly the namesake of Margaret Halstead Reid (b. 8 November 1805), who was one of Peter's grandchildren, the daughter of his son Daniel. Margaret Halstead Reid married Charles Wesley Ross on 19 September, 1830, and continued our line of descent.

According to family legend, Margaret Reid Ross kept a "patch-work quilt" made of pieces of woolen uniforms worn in various wars by soldiers in her family, beginning with the French and Indian War. It also included pieces of uniforms worn by her four sons who fought in the Civil War. At least two of Peter's grandchildren fought in the War of 1812, and at least four of his great grandchildren in the Civil War.

This lends credence to the family legend that a member of her family fought with General Wolfe in Quebec, who was killed in 1759 on the Plains of Abraham. Margaret also was as rock-ribbed a Presbyterian of her day as she could be, and maintained family discipline as strictly as a mother of six could possibly do. This included allowing no card playing in her house and no dancing. No cooking was allowed on Sunday.

Margaret Reid Ross died on 25 March, 1892, in Hedgeville, West Virginia, at the home of her son, Dr. Daniel Reid Ross, where she had lived as a widow for twenty five years. She was 84 years old, blind, and partially paralyzed. She was known in the community as "Mother Ross," according to the Martinsburg Herald, which carried a front page story on her death.

MORE ABOUT WILLIAM CONKLIN

Last month's newsletter carried an abstract of the Bergen Co., NJ, Rev. War Pension application of William Conklin. GSRC member M. Smeltzer Stevenot provides us here with more information about this early Rocklander.

Williams first Rockland ancestors were Mathias Conklin, b. c/1698, will proved Orangetown 1776, and Sophia Mabie, b. New Rochelle, d/o Casper Mabie. They were married in Hackensack RDC, NJ. He was head of a family in Orangetown in 1771.

Mathias was the son of Deliverance Conklin and Angeltie Buckout, d/o Mathias Buckout and Eleanor Ellsworth, and great grandson of John and Helena Conklin of Rye, NY. William's father, Abraham, was b. 1725, married Margrietje Bell, b. c/1727, d/o William Bell and Lea Blauvelt, in 1750 in Schraalenburg, NJ. Their son William was a freeholder from 1786 to 1794, moved to Franklin Township, NJ, in 1797. His son Benjamin, b. 1791, married Jemima (Dater?), b. 1795. They had children William J., b. c/1817-1820, and Elsie Jane who married William Holmes of NYC in 1852 at Zion Lutheran Church, Saddle River, NJ. William married Ann Eliza Dater, d/o John Dater and Maria Bush. Ann Eliza inherited a large farm in Tallman, NY, from her great grandfather Derrick Bush. Conklin descendants still live on the family property in Tallman.

A Genealogist's Christmas Eve

Twas the night before Christmas when all through the house Not a creature was stirring, not even my spouse.

The dining room table with clutter was spread
With pedigree charts and with letter which said ...

"Too bad about the data for which you wrote Sank in a storm on an ill-fated boat."

Stacks of old copies of wills and the such
Were proof that my work had become too much.

Our children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugarplums danced in their heads.

And I at my table was ready to drop,
From work on my album with photos to crop.

Christmas was here, and of such was my lot,
That presents and goodies and toys I'd forgot.

Had I not been so busy with grandparent's wills,
I'd not have forgotten to shop for such thrills.

While others had bought gifts that would bring
Christmas cheer,
I'd spent time researching those birth dates and years.

While I was musing about my sad plight,
A strange noise on the lawn gave me such a great fright.

Away to the window I flew with a flash,
Tore open the drapes and I yanked up the sash.

When what to my wondering eyes should appear,
but an over stuffed sleigh and eight small reindeer.

Up to the house top the reindeer they flew,
With a sleigh full of toys, and ole Santa Claus, too.

And then with a twinkle, I heard on the roof,
The prancing and pawing of thirty-two hoofs.

The TV antenna was no match for their horns,
And look at our roof with hoof-prints adorned.

As I drew in my head, and bumped it on the sash,
Down the cold chimney fell Santa -- KER-RASH !

"Dear" Santa had come from the roof in a wreck,
And tracked soot on the carpet [ I could wring his short neck ! ]

Spotting my face, good old Santa could see,
I had no Christmas spirit you'd have to agree.

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings, [ I felt like a jerk ! ]

Here was Santa, who'd brought us such gladness and joy,
When I'd been too busy for even one toy.

He spied my research on the table all spread.
"A Genealogist!" he cried [ My face was all red ! ]

To night I have met many like you, Santa grinned
As he pulled from his sack a large book he had penned.

I gazed with amazement - the cover it read,
"Genealogy Lines for Which You Have Pled"

"I know what it's like as a genealogy bug,
He said as he gave me a great Santa hug.

While the elves make a sleighful of toys I now carry,
I do some research in the North Pole Library !

A special treat I am thus able to bring,
To genealogy folks who can't find a thing.

Now off you go to your bed for a rest,
I'll clean up the house from this genealogy mess.

As I climbed up the stairs full of gladness and glee,
I looked back at Santa who'd brought much to me.

While settling in bed, I heard Santa's clear whistle,
To his team, which then rose like the down of a thistle.

And I heard him exclaim as he flew out of sight,
"Family History is Fun ! Merry Christmas !
Goodnight !"

476 Snedeker Cemetery / Felter Cemetery

Prior to 1963 there was a cemetery in northern New City that has been variously identified as the Felter Family Cemetery & the Snedeker Cemetery. In 1936 the RC Planning board identified this cemetery as #47, on the Frank Jones Farm, west of Paul Kliebers, at Congers. The 13 graves in this cemetery were moved to Oak Hill Cemetery in 1963 to make way for the widening of Route 304. Can anyone show or tell me exactly where this cemetery was located prior to demolition?

477 Smith Burial Ground

In 1942 Mr. F. J. Peterson of Suffern located a small family burial ground which he described as somewhere east of Preston Smith's place on Buena Vista Road in New City. Only one stone was copied, that of Anna Smith, wife of John Smith, died 15 June 1812, but the indications are that there were more stones. Can anyone show or tell me where this burial ground is or was?

Haverstraw King's Daughters Public Library

The Haverstraw King's Daughters Library is seeking the descendants of the 12 original Library Trustees, who were instrumental in starting the library in 1903. The library hopes to contact family members of those 12 trustees and have them participate in a celebration planned for May, 2003, which will commemorate both their 100th anniversary and the construction of a new library building. The new library will be located in the Rosman Center Shopping Plaza in Garnerville.

If your roots trace back to Mary A. Stalter, Mabel L. Lewis, Frances M. Masker, Margarete Meyers, Kate L. Gillies, Adelaide R. Newton, Carrie A. Reynolds, Lois M. Kinney, Mabel W. Reynolds, Anna S. Fowler, Jane C. Brennan or Amelia Zundel, the Library would like to hear from you. Contact Haverstraw King's Daughters Library at Main Street, Haverstraw NY, 10927, or call the library's director, Joanne Ginsburg Sininsky at (845) 429-3445.

FLESHING OUT THE BONES

I bet that at one time or another someone asked you why you do genealogy? Why do you care? I think that this poem expresses my feelings perfectly. Do you feel the same way?

We are the chosen. My feelings are that in each family there is one who seems called to find the ancestors. To put flesh on their bones and make them live again.

To tell the family story and to feel that somehow they know and approve.

To me, doing genealogy is not a cold gathering of facts but, instead, breathing life into all who have gone before.

We are the storytellers of the tribe. All tribes have one. We have been called as it were by our genes. Those who have gone before cry out to us: Tell our story. So, we do. In finding them, we somehow find ourselves.

How many graves have I stood before now and cried? I have lost count. How many times have I told the ancestors you have a wonderful family you would be proud of us?

How many times have I walked up to a grave and felt somehow there was love there for me? I cannot say.

It goes beyond just documenting facts. It goes to who am I and why do I do the things I do? It goes to seeing a cemetery about to be lost forever to weeds and indifference and saying I can't let this happen.

The bones here are bones of my bone and flesh of my flesh. It goes to doing something about it. It goes to pride in what our ancestors were able to accomplish. How they contributed to what we are today. It goes to respecting their hardships and losses, their never giving in or giving up, their resoluteness to go on and build a life for their family.

It goes to deep pride that they fought to make and keep us a Nation. It goes to a deep and immense understanding that they were doing it for us.

That we might be born who we are. That we might remember them. So we do.

With love and caring and scribing each fact of their existence, because we are them and they are us.

I tell the story of my family. It is up to that one called in the next generation to answer the call and take their place in the long line of family storytellers.

That is why I do my family genealogy, and that is what calls those young and old to step up and put flesh on the bones.

GENEALOGIST'S PRAYER

God grant me the serenity to accept the ancestors I cannot find, the courage to find the ones I can, and the wisdom to document thoroughly.

THE FAMILY TREE OF DAVID JAMES CARLOUGH and MARIA MAY

This illustrates a method of showing an entire family on a single sheet of paper.

Remember that each vertical column is a separate generation, with the oldest generation on the left.

The first column shows the parents of David James Carlough and his wife, Maria May, or the grandparents of the ten children in column three.

At the top of the second column is shown David J. Carlough and Maria May, the progenitors of this Carlough family.

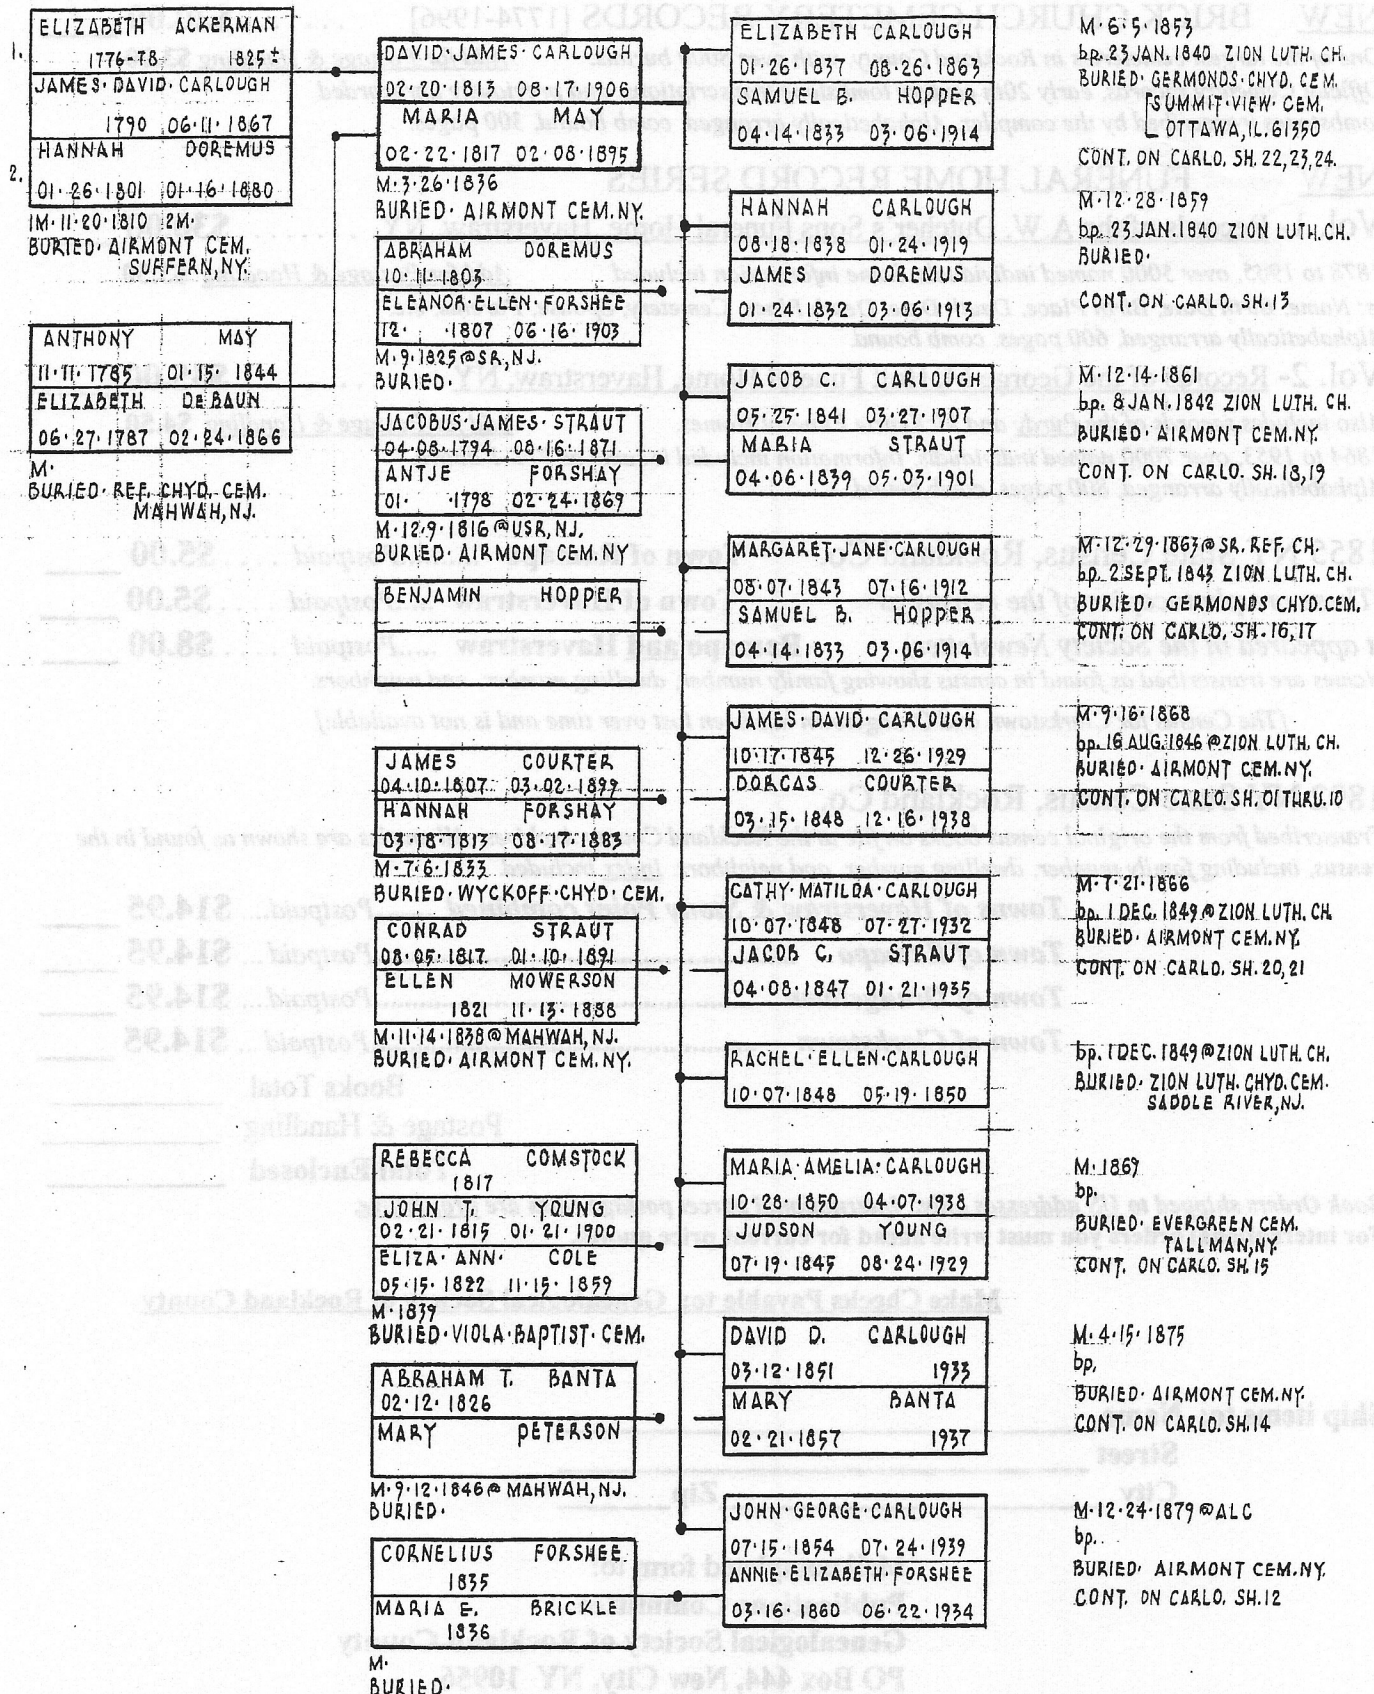

The third column shows the 10 children of David and Maria (marked by a black dot) in the order of their birth, with the top of the box for the direct descendant, and directly below their spouse. The horizontal line indicates the union of the two. Their birth and death dates are shown in each box.

The fourth column is for miscellaneous info such as their marriage, baptism, burial etc., and where to obtain further information on their children and grandchildren.

To the left of each of these children are the parents of the marriage partner, called in-laws. They are shown in the second column, as an older generation.
